Back to School!

Short Story!

It was the first day at school and Priya was happy to go back to school after the long holidays.

Holidays were fun but going back to school was a greater delight.

“Hi Sujatha, glad to see you back after the holidays. How did you spend your hols? I went to my cousin’s house and had a good time there with grandma, grandpa, aunt, uncle and cousins”, Priya gushed out with excitement.

Sujatha replied, “Yes, holidays were fun and I went on a tour, but it is great to be back with friends in school. Wonder who our new teacher will be”, mused Sujatha aloud.

The two friends held hands and climbed up the stairs to their new class. They were entering Class VI and they were very happy.

The bell rang and the children ran excitedly to gather at the school assembly. The assembly started with a prayer and a song.

The Principal then greeted all the students. She gave them some valuable advice.

“Children, success is being a kind, loyal, goodhearted and trustworthy person. Listen to your teacher in class, do your homework regularly and be good students. You will find the term very easy.

If you come across any problem, seek God’s guidance and counsel from elders to overcome them and it will make you stronger.

Remember this little verse, ‘The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge (Proverbs 1:7)’.

May God bless you little ones!”, the Principal concluded.

The children happily marched back to their classes to start a new academic year.
